THE CELTIC SPIRITUALITY OF IRELAND A PILGRIMAGE TO THE LAND OF SAINTS AND SCHOLARS

Under the Guidance of

Dame Gail Gresser, MA, DHS

Director of Campus Ministry (retired), Mount Saint Mary's University, Los Angeles

Rev. Sir Felix Just, SJ, PhD, KCHS

Loyola Marymount Jesuit Community, Los Angeles

15 Days: July 5 to 19, 2026

OUR HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- Dublin – including Trinity College & the Book of Kells
- Early Celtic sites - Monasterboice, Tara, and the Hill of Slane, where Saint Patrick courageously lit the first paschal candle in Ireland, drawing many to Christianity.
- Kildare – sites related to 5th century saint, Brigid of Kildare, patroness of Ireland.
- Glendalough – one of Ireland's most beloved and scenic monastic sites, founded by St. Kevin.
- Cobh – Visit Cobh Heritage Centre, which tells the story of the 2 million-plus emigrants who departed from Cobh Harbor to foreign lands.
- Killarney – the scenic Ring of Kerry, plus Valentia Island and the Skellig Experience, telling the story of the monks of Skellig Michael.
- Dingle Peninsula - famous for its Celtic pre-Christian monuments and ancient Christian churches.
- Bunratty Castle - Built in 1425, famous for its medieval madrigal dinner banquet replete with Castle Singers and traditional Irish songs.
- Ennis - the friendly town that is home to the 13th century Franciscan Friary (a National Museum of Ireland).
- Cliffs of Moher - one of Ireland's most spectacular natural wonders, overlooking the Atlantic Ocean.
- Galway – located on the Wild Atlantic Way, a city best known for its arts and culture.
- Connemara - a scenic land of lakes and rivers, bogs and mountains, where Gaelic is still the spoken language, likely the wildest and most romantic part of Ireland.
- Aran Islands - three Galway Bay islands are the home of contemporary Irish speakers and the remains of early Christian monasteries and hermitages.
- Knock – Our Lady of Knock, Ireland's most beloved shrine to our Blessed Mother.
- Plus much, much more!
